SERVICES AT THE BOWERY MISSION. THE BODY DRESSED IN CRINESE GARB AND LAID TO

EEST AT EVERGREENS.

Undertaker Naughton, at No. 37 Mott-st., laid out the body of the murdered Chinaman, Ong Ah Mon, yesterday under the supervision of Ah Foo and the dead man's two cousins, Ah Som and Yung How, who brought with them clothes of Chinese cut. Blue linen tronsers, a bine blouse and a bine satin turban were placed on the body; a long red satin turban were placed on the body; a long red scarf was folded twice around the head and then arranged on either side, while a second red scarf was tucked in the left sieeve of the blouse and stretched thence to the feet. Blue stockings were on the feet. Ah Foo then took a pack of cards with prayers printed in Chinese characters on them, and scattered them, thirteen in number, along the side of the coffin. Ah Som and Yung How took pits of evergreen and small slips of red paper and scattered them over the body. While this was being done Ah Foo began chauting prayers for the dead in a dreary, monotonous voice. When the prayer was finished he went to the side of the coffin, gazed on the dead man's face intently, and repeated something in Chinese. Then he took Ong Ah Mon's arm and litted it up three times, and after letting it drop back into the coffin the three Chinamen walked out.

All of Ah Mon's Sunday-schoot teachers came to REST AT EVERGREENS.

MR. BUOKSTAVER TRYING TO PROVE THAT HE DID

MR. B.OKSTAVER TRYING TO PROVE THAT HE DID—what MR. WILLIAMS KNOWS.

The suit of the Western Union Telegraph and th Manhattan and the Missouri Pacific railway companies against Charles D. Keep, came up vesterday in the Jefferson Market Police Court. The corporations charge that Mr. Keep as Editor of The Wall Street Daily Nass, maliciously published false statements regarding the companies in that paper in May, the purpose of which was to injure the market value of the stock and bonds of the companies. The corporations were represented by Henry W. Bookstaver, of Vauderpoel, Green & Cuming. John H. Strahan appeared for Mr. Keep. Police Justice Gorman presided. Dr. Norvin Green, Daniel W. McWilliams, of the Manhattan, and Amos F. Calci, of the Missouri Pacific companies, were present.

Amos F. Calef, of the Missouri Facine compaints, were present.

Mr. Strahan moved to dismiss the complaint as he said that he had discovered a tatal mistake in the complaint in that it was charged that Mr. Keep might have had information showing the falsity of his assertions. The potential mood, Mr. Strahan nrged, saved Mr. Keep from having been guilty of the oftence alleged. Mr. Strahan expressed his sorrow at interposing an objection. Then he made a plea in behalf of independent journalism in Wall Street, and darkly hinted at an irrepressible conflict brewing between The Wall Street Daily News and Messrs. Green, McWilliams and Calef, on whose affidavit Mr. Keep had been arrested. Then Mr. Strahan acknewledged that he "welcomed the conflict."

conflict.'
Dr. Green took umbrage at Mr. Strahan's words and manner and said: "The counsel has evidently alluded to me as acting in a subordinate canacity. I am the president of the Western Union Telegraph Company and am acting in this matter by order of the Executive Committee of the Board of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors."

Mr. Bookstaver then took up the endgel and belabored what he called Mr. Strahan's "fine Fourth of July speech." He then charged that Mr. Keep had manufactured all his statements in his paper. Mr. strahan jumped up and declared that "more powerful men than Dr. Green were behind this suit." Mr. Bookstaver promptly denied it. Justice Gorman as promptly denied Mr. Strahan's motion. So Mr. Strahan said that he was ready to proceed. As Dr. Green was present "at great inconvenience." Mr. Bookstaver wished to go on with the Western Union case, or that of the Missouri Pacific first. Mr. Strahan wanted the Manhattan.

Mr. McWilliams, the secretary and treasurer of the Manhattan Company, was then given an opportunity to testify under the management of Mr. Strahan. He hadjeen connected with the corporation since 1881, and naturally had a personal knowledge of the company's aflairs. Mr. Strahan knowledge regarding the company's aflairs was dependent on the records in its books.

Mr. Strahan—Your Honor, I ask for an adjournment so that the records of the Manhattan Company may be brought into court.

Mr. Bookstaver—You have no more right to have those books brought into court than you have to the loundation stone of the Capitol. It is for you to prove your case.

Your case. Mr. Strahan—That is an extraordinary statement for four to make. I ask for the books to prove that the statements of the witness as made in the adidavits are false. An adjournment was taken until to-day.

APPOINTING DR. MACCRACKEN VICE-CHANCELLOR.

—OTHER CHANGES IN THE UNIVERSITY.

At a meeting of the Council of the University of the City of New-York on Tuesday night the Rev. Dr. John Hall was elected Chancellor, the office he has been filling for over three years, and the Rev. Dr. Henry M. MacCracken was elected Vice-Chancellor. Dr. Hail's duties as pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church have prevented him from accepting this office heretofore, and his chinrch was unwilling that he should assume the labors that were attached to the position. This difficulty has been overcome by the creation of the office of Vice-Chancellor and Dr. Hall has now accepted the position. A committee of the council to which he was elected in 1881 and faculty have been in conference respecting this action for several months. It had the approval of all the members of the committee and was sanctioned by the council. The mustom is that offithe Universities of Edinburgh. Cambridge and other great British, institutions which enables the universities to secure the services and influence of eminent men who canuot give all their time to the work. The University of the City of New-York is one of the first in this country to adopt the custom.

Dr. MacCracken came to the University last year to fill the chair of moral and intellectual philosophy. He had been for some years Chancellor of the University of Western Pennsylvania. He was a graduate of the Miami University at Xenia, in the same class with Dr. John S. Billings, Surgeon-General of the United States Army; subsequently he studied theology at Princeton and in Germany. He preached in Columbus and Toledo for sixteen years and is the author of a number of religious works, among others "The Lives of the Leaders of the Church," which has been published by eleven different denominations. On Dr. MacCracken will devolve the active management of the University. There has been a reorganization of the curricalum and a revision of the course of mathematics, SAVING A FURNITURE TRUCK AND MAN. SAVING A FURNITURE TRUCK AND MAN. A truck loaded with furniture belonging to Mr. Smith, of No. 4 East Sixteenth-st., was being put on board the steamer Wilber A. quantity of bedding, trunks, etc. The latter were said to contain valuable clothing, etc. The wagen was badly broken. An old man who was in the crowd watching the proceedings fell into the river and would probably have been drowned had not Felix Gunn, of No. 219 Broome-st., jumped in after him and caught him as he was sinking for the third time. The uptorn street from the Astor House to Maiden-lane was choked with vehicles of every description. The most disgusted men were the tall, fine-looking policemen of the Broadway squad, whose beautiful uniforms were concealed under a copious coating of dust. More than 300 solid and substantial looking merehants ast on camp chairs in the large auction room of Field, Chapman & Fenner, at No. 64 Broadway, yesterday and wondered at the marvellous faxibility of tongue, which the gifted auctioneer displayed in calling the bids on 10,000 packages of common flannels and 1,500 cases of Canton flannels. Buyers were present from every prominent city in the United States. Among other houses represented were H. B. Claffin & Co., Edward Ridiog & Son, E. S. A big sale of flanuels attracts marked attention in the dry-goods community, as it in a measure regulates the prices for some time to come. The last sale was in September and the amount realized aggregated nearly $1,000,000. Yesterday's sale, under the direction of Faulkner, Page & Co., of No. 70 Leonard-St., amounted to $1,250,000. The bidding was lively, but the prices were declared to be from five to seven per cent lewer than those of last September. The low prices, however, caused a brisk demand for the goods and more than 700 cases of flannels were oversold to be supplied by July 1. The sale is a result of over-production by the New-England mills.

Elizabeth Doyle, who was shot in the face on Sunday evening at Mount Morris Park and taken to the Ninety-ninth Street Hospital, was somewhat improved in condition yesterday, having nearly recovered from the shock. The bullet has not been found and is supposed to have entered the brain, although no cerebral symptoms have yet been manifested. The attending surgeon believes that she will recover.

John Coleman, who was identified by the injured woman as her assailant, was taken to the Harlem Police Court and after an examination was held to await the result of her ignifies. Coleman did not made a statement in court, out said to a Tribune reporter, after he had been led to his cell, that on Sunday evening at the time of the assails the was in his home at the foot of One hundred-and-ninth-st, with his wife and two children. He had been drinking during the day and had gone home to sober up. Several persons he declared saw him there, and are ready to swear to it. He added that when he was taken before the woman at the hospital, the officer who had him in custody suggested that he was her assailant before she atomined him. She was under the influence of drugs and had to be whaten constantly to keep her awake while she looked at him. The woman stated that the man who shot her took the pia to from his hip peaket. Thereis no such pocket in the prisoner's clothing.

The woman's story of the shooting and her identification of Coleman are not given much credence by the police, as she has econtradiced herself in many particulars, and has also charged that the private watchman at Mount Morris Park was the person who had committed the seasult, when, in fact, he was not near the piace at the time.

WHY WATER IN THE ANNEXED DISTRICT IS EAD.

Commissioner Squire has written to Mayor Grace concerning the supply of water in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards. He says that since the water e-rylee was introduced in the district the circulation of the water has been imperfect because new pines have to be laid continually and projected from the Central and connected system of mains to distant points without intersecting mains. This causes stagnation of main the first and a consequent accumulation of sediment in the pipes. The additional pressure from the Bronx River supply, together with the spring movement of fish in the pipes, have stirred up all the sediment which has collected for years, causing a temporary though harmless discoloration of the water, and in some places a fishy or otherwise dissurrenable taste. The water has been flowing of at various points, and the Commissioner thinks that the cause or complaint will soon be removed. He has assed the Health Department to analyze water taken from the pipes at several points.

Assistant District-Attorney Bedford called the case of Annie McCluskey yesterday before Judge Gildersleeve, in the Court of General Sessions. Ex-Judge Refford said in his opening address that the woman had once been a fond mother, but that she became addicted to the use of liquor. She stopped drinking for a few days and then her husband was awakened in the night by the raising of a window and found that she had killed one of her young children by throwing it out of the window. She afterward endeavored to take her own life and that of another child. She was accused of homickie, but a question will arise as to her mental con-

" ECCLESIASTICAL LAW IN HAMLET." "ECCLESIASTICAL LAW IN HAMLET."

R. C. Guernsey read a paper last evening before the Shakespeare Society at No. 47 Lafayette-place, on "Ecclesiastical Law in Hamiet." He devoted his attention to the grave-digger's scene and the burial of typhelia. This scene as alaborated in the edition of 1604, he said, was not in that of 1603 and that of 1597. The "virgin kranz" and "struments" referred, in Mr. Guernsey's opinion, to the wreaths of flowers strewn inpon the grave. This custom had a Roman Catholic origin, but although Frotesiant rites were prescribed by statute after the reign of Queen Mary, the distinctions were not closely observed. Mr. Guernsey thought that shakespeare simply reflected the lawsand customs of his time, paying no attention to what might have been the usage in Denmark at an earlier date.

Ex-Cadet Whittaker, who was accused of biting his own cars off at West Point, was not crushed by the result of his trial. Having studied hav he was admitted to the South Carolina bar. He recently made his first argument before a jury, and is generously praised by a Charleston Democratic paper, which says he did better than the average young lawyer. The jury disagreed, which was all Whittaker expected.—[New-Haven Journal.

I was taken for the first time in my life with Bilind Piles, so severe that I could hardly keep on my feet. I used various remedies for three weeks, when the disease took the form of Itching Piles, and growing worse. By advice of an old gentleman I tried the CUTICURA. One application pileved the itching and I was soon cared. I wish to tell the world that in cases of Itching Piles the price of the CUTICURA is of no account. From an unsolicited quarter.

FOR BRIGHT'S DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS. THE GOUTY DIATHESIS, NERVOUS AND ACT DYSPEPSIA, STONE IN THE BLADDER ETC.

DR. WM. A. HAMMOND.

Of New-York, Surgeon-General U.S. Army (retired), Prafessor of Diseases of the Mind and Nervous System, is the University of New-York, etc.

"I have for some time made use of the Buffale Lithis Water in cases of associous of the Nervous System, complicated with Bright's Disease of the Ridneys, or with a Gouty Institute
The results have been eminently satisfactory. Lithis has for many years been a favorite remedy with me in his cases, but the Buffale Water cartainly acts better than any extempt rancons solution of the Lithis Satts, and is moreover believ borne by the stomach. I also often proceibed it in those case of Cerebral Hyperamia, resulting from oner-mental workin which the condition called Nervous Dyspepsia exists—and generally with marked beneat."

DR. HARVEY L. BYRD. Late Professor of Practical Medicine, Ballimore Medical College.

Late Professor of Practical Medicine, Battimore Medical College.

"I have witnessed the best results from the action of the Buffalo Lithia Water, Spring No. 2 in Chronic Goul, Illenatic Goul, themmatic Goul, themmatics, Gravel and Stone in the Bladder, and I do not bestiate to express the opinion that in all discass depending upon or having their origin in Urie Acid Diathesis it is unsurpassed if indiced it is equated by any scater thus far known to the profession.

"It has an accretioned educe in Bright's Discass. A knowledge of its action in that discase thus far would seem to we rant the belief that it would, in many instances at test its sarily stages, arrest if entirely; and its more advanced stages prove a decided confort and palliafits.
"It is powerfully Antacid, and especially afficacious is what is commonly known as Acid Psychopia."
